Trainer C. Ramdin also appeared before the Board and he stated that (a) he was not sure of the running of the horse as it was only its second run in Mauritius, (b) he was also concerned with the soft mouth of the horse and expressed that he would attend to it with immediate effect, and (c) after considering the Jockey's view, he stated that he would prefer the horse to run up in front and lead, if possible, in the future if the pace is average.
