- SERGEI (R. Boutanive) jumped awkwardly and brushed the gates.
- Leaving the stalls, BACKPACKER (G. Aucharuz), CLEAN SLATE (J. Allyhosain) and TAKING SILK (K. Ramsamy) made contact.

Stewards Reports

- SERGEI (R. Boutanive) was carried out by GIGGIN (R. Joorawon) due to the rail position at the 1750m.
- Jockey J. Allyhosain (CLEAN SLATE) appeared before the Board in relation to his riding between the 350m and the 200m when he was observed to be passive in his riding and having an option to follow BACKPACKER (G. Aucharuz) and allowing BACKPACKER a run on him. Jockey J. Allyhosain informed that leaving the 450m, his intention was to go on the outside of BACKPACKER. However, when he saw BACKPACKER being ridden further wide, he decided to maintain his running line on the inside of BACKPACKER and wanted to wait for an opportunity at the top of the straight when usually happens as the horses fan out at that stage. When queried for not opting to follow BACKPACKER in the running, he said that in that case, he would have travelled more wider instead of a possibility of finding a run between horses. Further, in the straight, when he had an opportunity to ride in his anticipated manner, GIGGIN (R. Joorawon) shifted in and closed the gap in front of him and then he had to switch his horse to the outside and from then on, he had ridden his horse. The Board was not entirely satisfied with his riding, however, CLEAN SLATE failed to make up ground on BACKPACKER in the straight and therefore noted the explanations of Jockey J. Allyhosain.

3. SERGEI (R. Boutanive) was eased briefly passing the 300m.
