He stated that he could have done so but explained that he went out wide for two reasons. Firstly, due to the erratic run of EMERALD BAND from leaving the 800m when the latter failed to keep a straight run as EMERALD BAND switched ground several times, he did not want to suffer any interference at that stage of the race and secondly, he wanted to secure clear running as he was instructed to start moving up from leaving the 400m. He further stated that MASTER KEEKU did run on to his satisfaction despite hanging in but he felt his mount stayed a bit one-paced in the final stages. Jockey M.
